★ WORLD IN FLAMES ★

It's 2:30 am, I slowly come awake and know that something's just not right. I walk slowly to the door and feel the heat through the walls and smell the burning outside. And all I can see are these flames around me. And all I can think is I'm here alone Please find me and say... Even if the world ignites into flames you'll be right here by my side. And as it burns away you smile at me and say that not even death could take me. Away from you. The fires are growing close and all I smell is smoke, it still looks beautiful to me. I hope you get here soon, I've been waiting here for you, I believed in you. So hurry please, there's flames around me. Please come and say... Even if the world ignites into flames you'll be right here by my side. And as it burns away you smile at me and say that not even death could take me. Away from you. Where are you tonight. Come find me 'cause you're not here by my side. Even if the world ignites into flames you'll be right here by my side. Come home to me. Where are you tonight love 'cause your not here with me. Please come home. It's burning outside. Please come home. I'll be waiting here for you, I hope you make it soon. The flames are right outside my door...

★ THE LAST COWBOY ★

And behold a cowboy came into town, dirty and worn. He had black eyes, long hair and lines that cut deep into his frown. He had the right hand of the devil strapped tightly to his side. And you could tell fear abandoned this outlaw in a previous life. Why, looking but never seeing. Why, searching but never finding. Why, for the kiss to bring his cold dead heart back to life. I am, I am searching for you. Waiting, I am coming. First light, I am coming for you. Last stand. I am, I am searching for you. Waiting, I am coming. First light, I am coming for you. Catch me if you can. He had the story of whisky on his breath and death in his eyes. You never heard him say a word but his pistol shot straight through the lies. Looking for the new world going from dead town to town. But his compass was cracked and north is six feet underground. Why, looking but never seeing. Why, searching but never finding. Why, for the kiss to bring his cold dead heart back to life. I am, I am searching for you. Waiting, I am coming. First light, I am coming for you. Last stand. I am, I am searching for you. Waiting, I am coming. First light, I am coming for you. Catch me if you can. I towed the line for you. I am, I am searching for you. Waiting, I am coming. First light, I am coming for you. Last stand. I am, I am searching for you. Waiting, I am coming. First light, I am coming for you. Catch me if you can. If you ever cross a shadow in a wasted void. You tell him I'm here waiting for the last cowboy

★ THE ROAD ★

These thoughts of you are all I have to pull me through. This fight my heart is strong and true. There's nothing I won't do to show you. I would sacrifice my dying breath for you. No matter how dark the road. You'll light my way. No matter how far my home. I'll find my way. The bridge is burning and there's no returning. To the desert songs of yesterday. These streets are cracked and all the trees have died. But I will not lose faith I will not stray. No matter how dark the road. You'll light my way. No matter how far my home. I'll find my way

★ IRON ARMY ★

My soldiers rise. Protecting me from all my enemies. I know you had to go, it's my war not yours. I know you had to go, it's easier to ignore. I know you had to go, we're not all bred for the battleground. This is my war. There is no surrender. No fear, no more. I'll never stand down. This is my war. You will all remember. Hear me now, I'm calling out. I built myself a fucking iron army. Their hearts are made of blood and steel. And they'll march through a hurricane without a fear. I know you had to go, it's my war not yours. I know you had to go, it's easier to ignore. I know you had to go, we're not all bred for the battleground. This is my war. There is no surrender. No fear, no more. I'll never stand down. This is my war. You will all remember. Hear me now, I'm calling out. I built myself a fucking iron army. Though I walk through the valley of death I will fear no evil. I built myself a fucking iron army.

★ STANDING ALONE ★

So here we are now at the end of our road. So many questions going unanswered. These streets are dark and led me far from you. And you never noticed that I was gone. And now I'm standing here alone. Still I hold my head up high. The time has come for me to leave. It's the only way to survive. There's no need now for you to say a word. Your sacrifices for me took a turn. I hope you're sailing free and on your way. And I hope that you think of me each day. And now I'm standing here alone. Still I hold my head up high. The time has come for me to leave. It's the only way to survive. And now I'm standing here alone. Holding my head high. The time has come for me to leave. It's the only way to survive. Now I'm standing here alone. It's the only way to survive

★ A STAR-CROSSED WASTELAND ★

The dust is clearing, the desert is calm. The skies are all quiet and I can't make a sound. And I just wait for you. I'm calling for a savior to show me where to start. And all who still remain are whispering in the dark. And we just wait for a sign. So this is my once upon a time. So this is my star-crossed wasteland. The wolves are ascending, the vultures are near. And I'm still here waiting for you to reappear. And you just wait for a sign. So this is my once upon a time. So this is my star-crossed wasteland. And you'll never know what it is you've done to me. And we all wait for a sign. And we just wait for a sign

★ BLAZIN ★

Let's blaze! We just got into town and we've been driving all night. We've been gone for far too long now it's time for getting right. So you know where to meet me and you know just what I need. So show me what I've been missing out on and why I shouldn't leave. We're not gonna stop tonight we're gonna burn this city down. We're not gonna stop tonight we're gonna blaze till the morning sun. We're just now hitting the town and we're taping off the streets. We've been driving all day and night tell me were you waiting for me. So you know what's going down and you know just what I need, So show me what I've been missing out on and why I should believe. We're not gonna stop tonight we're gonna burn this city down. We're not gonna stop tonight we're gonna blaze till the morning sun

★ THE PROMISE ★

It's haunting this hold that you have over me, I grow so weak. I see you and everything around you fades and I can't speak. But you can never know what it is you do to me. I can't take what you're doing to me, I can't take it. No matter what I say or what I do I know how this will end. So I'm turning away now before we begin. And no matter what you say or what you do I know how this will end. So I'm turning away now. I'm dangerous for you. You touch me and I can barely make a move and I can't breathe. You can never know what it is you do to me. I can't take what you're doing to me, I can't take it. No matter what I say or what I do I know how this will end. So I'm turning away now before we begin, And no matter what you say or what you do I know how this will end. So I'm turning away now, I'm dangerous. The only promise I can make you, is that my promises are lies. No matter what I say or what I do I know how this will end. So I'm turning away now before we begin, And no matter what you say or what you do I know how this will end, So I'm turning away now, I'm dangerous for you. My promise is I will hurt you

You can take the wheel and I'll breathe the wind. With my head back and hands in the air I am flying, Just drive. Take me away tonight, just me with you tonight. Down the winding road, we will not let go. We will drive no matter how far. Yes we will drive until the ending of it all. So here we are we left the world behind. You've got your foot on the gas and it's do or die, And these four wheels are all we need as were cruising. So here we are in this Cadillac. We've got the rag top down and the seats are back. You turn to me you say baby tonight we're flying. Just drive. Take me away tonight, just me with you tonight. Down the winding road, we will not let go. We will drive no matter how far. Yes we will drive until the ending of it all

★ THE GUN SHOW ★

Welcome to the gun show! Hey cowboy how's it goin' tonight. Come on in and you can buy me a drink. Hey cowboy I see your pistol is cocked, And you've got a look on your face like you wanna rock. Welcome to the gun show, tonight we get wild. Welcome to the gun show, where the dead come alive. Hey cowboy I hope you're fast, Cause I'm the baddest gunslinger in the west. Hey outlaw follow me outside. And keep your fingers on the triggers while we party all night. Welcome to the gun show, tonight we get wild. Welcome to the gun show, where the dead come alive. It all comes down to a single moment. The strong will fight and the weak will run. Slide the bullet in the barrel, Let me see you count to ten and draw your guns. May the best man win.
